Globalisation, Human Degradation and Unequal Competition

By -

Wisdom House UK. Paperback. Book Condition: New.

Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in.

The basic hypothesis of the present volume is that trade liberalisation and MNCs-led globalisation have been mainly responsible for the deterioration of human values, human dignity and human welfare in poor countries. It brings to focus the mechanism through which globalisation has been able to create and sustain poverty, inequality and gender differentiation in the economic sphere. B. N. Ghosh, PhD (India), M. CIM (UK), GFCR (Harvard), is currently a Professor of Economics, Eastern Mediterranean University, North Cyprus. A specialist in Human resource Development and Political Economy, he has published extensively in refereed journals. His books are published, among others, by Arnold Heinemann, Longman, Macmillan, Routledge, Nova Science Publications of New York, Ashgate Publishing and Wisdom House of England. He has undertaken short-term consultancies for various organizations including the University Grants Commission and the United Nations Development Programme. Professor Ghosh is the Director (Hon. ) of the Centre for the Study of Human Development in Leeds (England), and the Editor of International Journal of Human Development, Leeds (England). Professor Ghosh's research has ranged over a number of areas including political economy, human resource development, economics,...
