Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: .my good and kind friend, the late Mr. William Sharp, who knew perhaps more about the masons and masonry of his native town than anyone else, give any information on the subject. I mention the report nevertheless, as it is only by continued searching and watching that we may ever hope to find and rescue papers which may throw a flood of light on the history of the craft. The entries referring to Freemasonry in the diary of Elias Ashmole were not printed until 1717, in a small edition which has now become comparatively scarce. They were not noticed by Anderson in the first edition of the Book of Constitutions issued in 1723, the fact being, perhaps, as other matters are also omitted, that it was not until he prepared the second edition, in 1738, that he had made any search for definite records bearing on...
