Remember the Days of Old, Consider the Years of Many Generations; Ask Thy Father, and He Will Shew Thee; Thy Elders, and They Will Teach Thee. - Deut. xxxii.;7. Moses, having brought the children of Israel to the borders of the Promised Land, being commanded by God to go up to the top of Pisgah, and there die alone, on the eve of his departure called the elders and people together, and addressed to them his farewell message in the memorable song of which our text forms a part. In it he rehearses God's gracious dealings with them, and entreats them ever to be loyal and grateful to Him by a review of their singular mercies. It is in this connection that the words of the text occur, Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations; ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee. To enforce this exhortation, he gave instances wherein God had favored them, some of which occurred in the remote past, the memory of which had been kept fresh and green by tradition; these he bade them keep in mind, saying, Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations.
