

Bizarre Bullying of Teenagers Trying to Survive Life: Growing to Adulthood with Bad Experiences During Youth

By James M Lowrance

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .(Approximately 6,000 words in length.)

Why would I see the need to write about a horrible bizarre bullying experience, that I had as a teen who grew up in the 1970s, rather than to relate all of the glory days I experienced? My reason, is because I think we sometimes forget about just how hard it can be for a teen who is growing into adulthood, to survive the negative challenges of it. This is true especially of those harsh experiences involving mean-spirited people, that the vast majority of kids are affected by at some point during their transition into adulthood. I do not wish to imply that this stops when we become adults (there are lots of mean-spirited adults) but kids are more susceptible to hurt feelings. We sometimes become passive about how difficult and demanding this time in a person's life can be. We see movies and television that turn the sometimes horrible experiences of youth, into humorous plots and comical skits. The fact is however, that the teen years are sometimes not survived by...
