The department which it is proposed to appoint should make an Annual Report to Parliament. The expediency of introducing the Metric system has thus been admitted, first, by the unanimous opinion of the Select Committee of the House of Commons, and, secondly, by a large majority of the House itself. We shall now conclude our observations with a brief summary of the principal reasons in favour of the measure: --1st. The uniformity in Weights and Measures which it has always been the great object of the Legislature to establish, is defeated by the vast variety of Weights and Measures in use in every part of the country and in many branches of trade. 2nd. The existence of so many Weights and Measures other than the Imperial, proves that we do not at present possess a system adequate to the requirements of trade, and...
