Of course if I am relieved, as I should be delighted to be relieved, of any of these cases by the Tribunal, I shall pass on. The President.--Not at all. Sir Charles Russell.--But I must deal with each of them unless I am so relieved. 1083 This was the message of President Monroe, delivered on the 13th of January, 1818. lie says: I have the satisfaction to inform Congress that the establishment in Amelia Island has been suppressed, and without the effusion of blood. By the suppression of this establishment and that of Galveston, which will soon follow, if it has not already ceased to exist, there is good cause to believe that the consummation of a project fraught with much injury to the United States has been prevented. When we consider the persons engaged in it, being adventurers from different countries, with very few, if any, of the native inhabitants of the Spanish colonies;--the territory on which the establishments were made, one on a portion of that claimed by the United States, westward of the Mississippi; the other on the part of East Florida, a province in negotiation between the United States and Spain;--the claim of their leader, as announced by his proclamation on taking possession of Amelia Island, comprising the whole of both the Floridas, without excepting that part of West Florida which is incorporated with the...
